

The Service of Worship The First Sunday of Lent 10:30 a.m.

Hurting, they came to him. Healed, they followed him. Grateful, they gave to him what they had and what they were. Blessed, they became a blessing and went out to all the world in his name.

Organ Prelude Larghetto Bach

Welcome to Worship Mike Baker
(Visitors are encouraged to fill out a card found in the pew rack and place the rose on their lapel)

Chimes

Choral Introit The Old Rugged Cross Bennard
(The congregation is invited to join the choir on the chorus (p. 141) of the Choral Introit)

*Hymn of Praise 54 FAITHFULNESS

Call to Worship Great Is Thy Faithfulness Mike Baker

Leader: What are you giving up for Lent?

People: Lent??? Giving up???

Is this some new language? Baptists don't observe Lent, do we?

Leader: Early in the history of the Christian Church, followers of Jesus called upon one another to prepare for Easter. As we prepare for Easter, we remember that Jesus calls us to deny ourselves.

People: Does it really change the world to deny ourselves?

Leader: Christ calls us to change the world one person at a time. As we follow Christ, his life serves as the model for our life. If Christ overcame temptation, we also should consider our temptations and follow him.

All: We begin our preparation for Easter today. May God lead us as we strive to become the people God created us to be.

Pastoral Prayer

Lord's Prayer

Anthem I'd Rather Have Jesus arr. Martin

Give me Jesus, you can have all this world. Give me Jesus! I'd rather have Jesus than silver or gold. I'd rather be His than have riches untold. I'd rather have Jesus than houses or lands. I'd rather be led by his nail-pierced hands, than to be the king of a vast domain, or be held in sin's dread sway. I'd rather have Jesus than anything this world affords today. He's father than lilies of rarest bloom. He's sweeter than honey from out of the comb. He's all that my hungering spirit needs. I'd rather have Jesus and let him lead, than to be the king of a vast domain, or be held in sin's dread sway. I'd rather have Jesus than anything this world affords today.

Announcements

TONIGHT! The Calder choir will have a lead role in the Lenten Preaching service tonight. Our choir will combine with singers from Bethlehem Lutheran and St. Anne Catholic to provide special music for the second night of the three-night series. We hope you will continue to support this worthwhile community effort and bring your friends and neighbors to worship with you. As is our custom, there will be a fellowship time following the worship service featuring homemade cookies and punch.

We need two (2) Calder members to work with Sarah Matheny on Monday night as our part in the programming for children during the Lenten Preaching series. All activities are provided.

CKCBI, otherwise known as Calder Kairos Cookie Bakers, Inc. faces one of their most ambitious challenges as they gather to unbox, arrange, bake, cool, bag and box up 388 DOZEN cookies — part of the 6,000 dozen cookies needed for those inmates attending the Kairos event at the Stiles unit. Many hands do make light work and your hands and help will be gratefully appreciated on Monday, February 22. The cooking, cooling and boxing units will be running full blast from 8:30 a.m. til 5:00 p.m. Broken cookies are always fair game. Need more information? Contact Jim Love, Prison Ministry Committee chair.

Men of the church—having just attended a Saturday morning Men's Breakfast in conjunction with the Lenten Preaching Series, don't forget our Calder Men's Breakfast on Friday, February 26, at 7 a.m. in our Fellowship Hall.

Leading In Worship

Mike Baker grew up in Conroe, attended SMU undergrad and law school, and started work in 1977 for Strong, Pipkin where he is now a partner. At Calder, Mike teaches the Journey Class and serves on the Hospitality Committee. Mike shares life with Beverly and four grown children, Emily, Clarke, Clayton, and Collin, who is married to Kelly.

Welcome Visitors

We are delighted that you are present for worship. Please fill out a visitor's card during the Welcome and place the rose on your collar or lapel. Place the card in the offering plate or hand it to the pastor at the end of the service. A brief reception in Fellowship Hall following the service will allow us to become better acquainted. Please join us. Hearing assistance may be secured from a soundboard technician at the back of the Sanctuary. Lap shawls are available from ushers for those who find the Sanctuary too cool.

February 21, 2010

The shepherds have left,
 They've returned to hillside
 and to sheep.
 The Magi, too, have gone,
 having been warned in a dream,
 as was Joseph
 who packed up his family and fled.

If I stay in Bethlehem,
 I stay alone.
 God has gone on toward Jerusalem.
